Bangman (Kimsoo Joong-hyun) is a Korean horror western action adventure film written and directed by Kim Kwang-Soo. It stars Chae Jung-an, Lee Jung-jin, Kim Hye-ok, Jung Young-shin, Kim Sang-hyeon, Yoo Gun, Yoon Hye-won, Seo Yoo-sung and Jeon Jong-ho. The film centers on 32-year-old Bangman (Chae Jung-an), who was preparing to become a great hunter but is forced into a job at a travelling circus when his old friend, collector, and NRA (Nuclear-powered Rifle Association) member Hyung-joon (Lee Jung-jin), enters his life. He suddenly finds that the circus is actually a front-line operation of history's most powerful war operation, and that the circus's destiny is tied to Bangman's and Hyung-joon's investigation into the collector's disappearance. The film was released in South Korea on 9 December 2011. The film opened in Singapore's single-screen cinema Alkaff on 11 December 2011. Background Production Studio

Bang Man (also known as Bang Man) first announced on their official website the news that Kim Kwang-Soo will direct the film. At the time, the director was in preparing for his 22nd film "Troop", and the movie's cast, bar actor Yoon Hye-won, were yet to be cast. The filming officially started on 10 August 2011. On 11 September 2011, Kim Kwang-Soo revealed some details about the concept of the story, including the title, his idea about making the genre film, and the reason behind the film's bringing the 3D technology. Synopsis The story centers on Chae Jung-an, a 32-year-old rookie policeman who started his career as a hunter. The story starts when Chae transfers to his agency and his first case is about the disappearance of a collector, Hyung-joon, who owns and runs one of the most powerful firearms collecting company in South Korea, Bunkerism. Together with his partner Kang Choon-Kyung, Chae learns the company's past secrets behind Hyung-joon's disappearance and it leads to uncovering of a nuclear weapons collection company. Before the story reaches the climax, Chae is betrayed and framed by their rival guns dealer, Seo
